Buyer Frequently Asked Questions

Who can qualify as a Buyer in the Marketplace?

The Marketplace is open to qualified travel agents/advisors, outbound tour operators and meeting planners who handle travel products marketed to the LGBTQ+ community.

How many Buyer representatives can participate from one company?

An approved Buyer can bring one other representative from his/her company to the marketplace if the additional employee has paid a full conference registration. Two buyers maximum. Travel hosting benefits are provided only for the approved Buyer, not the second person.

Are there any fees for Buyers?

Qualified buyers receive complimentary registration for the marketplace and all convention programming.

What if I need to cancel my registration to the Buyer/Supplier Marketplace?

Please contact convention@iglta.org to make arrangements.

What if my questions are not answered here?

Please contact convention@iglta.org

IGLTA staff will be on site during the Marketplace to assist with any last-minute queries.
